Introduction

The Communications Act allows for the Codes of the legacy regulators to remain in force until such time as Ofcom has developed its own Codes. Ofcom has consulted on its new draft Code.

The new Code will be published this year.

The Codes and rules currently in force for broadcast content are:

- Advertising and Sponsorship Code (Radio Authority)
- News & Current Affairs Code and Programme Code (Radio Authority)
- Code on Standards (Broadcasting Standards Commission)
- Code on Fairness and Privacy (Broadcasting Standards Commission)
- Programme Code (Independent Television Commission)
- Programme Sponsorship Code (Independent Television Commission)
- Rules on the Amount and Scheduling of Advertising

From time to time adjudications relating to advertising content may appear in the bulletin in relation to the application of formal sanctions by Ofcom.

Copies of the full adjudications for Upheld and Not Upheld Fairness and Privacy cases can be found on the Ofcom website: www.ofcom.org.uk

Failure to provide recordings

Radio Ramadhan (Preston)

22 October, 22:00

Introduction

Radio Ramadhan (Preston) was granted a Restricted Service Licence from 16 October to 16 November 2004.

We received a complaint from an Imam who had taken part in a discussion programme and felt that he had been unfairly treated.

We also received 58 complaints from listeners who were offended by the treatment of the Imam.

Response

We asked for a recording of the station's output at the time specified by the complainants. The station failed to provide it.

Decision

As no recording was available, we were unable to listen to the station's output. It is a condition of the licence that licensees provide recordings as required by the regulator. The failure to provide a recording is a serious breach of a licence. This will be held on record and taken into account should a new licence be applied for in future.

The station was in breach of Condition 8 of its Restricted Service Licence (Retention and production of recordings).

Fairness and Privacy cases

Where a complaint is not upheld there is only a note of the outcome. For a copy of the full adjudication, whether the complaint is upheld or not, go to Ofcom's website at www.ofcom.org.uk/bulletins/ or send a stamped addressed envelope to: Ofcom, Riverside House, 2a Southwark Bridge Road, London SE1 9HA.

Summary of Adjudication

Complaint by Mr X

The Real Little Britain, BBC3, 19 October 2004

Of com has upheld a complaint from Mr X that his privacy was unwarrantably infringed in The Real Little Britain.

The programme featured a former pupil of Mr X's who revealed that, as a schoolboy, he had had a "crush" on him. Mr X complained that his privacy was unwarrantably infringed in the programme because he was named and personal information about his profession was included.

Ofcom acknowledged Mr X's concern over the disclosure of this personal information and considered that it infringed his privacy. The infringement of privacy was not warranted since it was not justified by an overriding public interest or for any other reason. Exploring the former pupil's experience of his sexual awakening and realisation that he was gay was not in itself enough reason to disclose Mr X's personal information.

Unfairness - upheld.

For a full copy of the adjudication go to Ofcom's website at www.ofcom.org.uk or send a stamped addressed envelope to: Ofcom, Riverside House, 2a Southwark Bridge Road, London SE1 9HA.
